FOREWORD

A picture cannot reveal the feelings or nature of a person. Neither can the joys the students have had at Castlewood High School be revealed in this sixth edition of the "Castletonian." It is hoped that these few pages will serve as a key to many wonderful memories of Castlewood High School.

THE STAFF HONORS

Miss Margaret Riner

With high esteem for her ability, guidance, gay spirit, and friendly personality, the sixth edition of the Castletonian is dedicated to Miss Margaret Riner.

Miss Riner is a typing and bookkeeping teacher, a guidance director, co-sponsor of the junior class, co-sponsor of the Commercial Club and also sponsor of the Beta Club.

"Do anything well or not at all" can certainly be said to be her standard. She is a person who always seems to be available and not too busy to counsel any student who needs her advice.

This dedication is only a small token of appreciation to Miss Riner for her outstanding qualities.

WANDA OSBORNE
SCA President

During the school year 1955-56 the Student Cooperative Association has carried out the following projects: orientation program for the freshmen; open house for parents during American Education Week; sponsored an amateur contest, a magazine drive, and king and queen contest at the Halloween Carnival. They gave baskets of food and clothing to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The members gave devotions over the public address system. To keep the students better informed, home room representatives were chosen, posters were placed in the halls, a monthly calendar put on the SCA bulletin board and assembly programs held once a month. The SCA sponsors a school party once each month. It is also in charge of the hall patrol. In order to establish a better relationship between the SCA and PTA, members of the council attended PTA meetings. The SCA council attended the SCA District meeting at Grundy, Va.

ADVERTISEMENTS

TALKING BIBLE

The New Testament in the beloved authorized King James Version, all 27 books, 260 Chapters and 180,751 words. Not a word has been changed or left out. The handsome black, gold-stamped simulated morocco leather binding of regular Bible size contains twenty-four 7-inch unbreakable vinylite records.

Can be played on any 33 RPM phonograph by means of a simple adapter provided with each Talking Bible.

Playing time is 24 hours. Weighs less than 2 pounds.

Ten years to develop, two years to record and you can buy it for only $22.95.
